

Coexisting with Coyotes

Coyotes have now been part of our county's population for years. Their numbers are still fluctuating, and they are definitely making their presence felt. Join us for an evening as we discuss their comeback and the issues, concerns, and benefits that surround this species.

Wednesday, July 19, 2023 – 7PM
Riegel Ridge Community Center – Library Room

Sponsored by Holland Township Environmental Commission

Have you heard a coyote lately calling in the night?

Coyotes are part of our county's wildlife population. Their numbers are growing, and they can be seen or heard almost everywhere in the area. Join us as we discuss the comeback of the Eastern Coyote and the issues, concerns, and benefits that surround this species. Learn how you can adapt to coexist with coyotes.

Wednesday, July 19, 2023 - 7PM
Riegel Ridge Community Center - Library Room

Sponsored by Holland Township Environmental Commission